ORDER

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (6) of section 45 of the Government of Union Territories Act, 1963 (20 of 1963), the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu, with the approval of the President, hereby makes the following Order, namely: —

1. Short title and commencement. — (1) This Order may be called the Salaries and Allowances of Deputy Ministers (Goa, Daman and Diu) Order, 1967.

(2) It shall be deemed to have come into force on the 5th April, 1967.

2. Definitions. — In this Order —

- «family» means a Deputy Minister's wife residing with him and legitimate children and step-children residing with him and wholly dependent on him; and where the Deputy Minister has more than one wife, only one wife shall be included in his family for the purposes of this Order. If the Deputy Minister is a married woman, «family» will include her husband residing with her;
- «Government» means the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu;
- «Deputy Minister» means a Deputy Minister appointed under sub-section (1) of section 45 of the Government of Union Territories Act, 1963;

- «travelling allowance» means the allowance granted to a Deputy Minister to cover the expenses which he incurs in travelling in the interests of public service as against travelling in personal interest or for private purpose, such as journeys for rest or recuperation of health or for attending party meeting or for election campaign.

3. Salary of Deputy Minister. — A Deputy Minister shall be paid a salary of five hundred rupees per month.

4. Residence of Deputy Minister. — A Deputy Minister shall be entitled, without any payment, to the use and maintenance of a furnished residence throughout the term of office and for a period of fifteen days immediately thereafter and so long as such residence is not provided, to a compensatory allowance of one hundred rupees per month.

Explanation. — For the purpose of this paragraph «residence» includes the staff quarters and other buildings appurtenant thereto and the garden thereof and «maintenance» in relation to a residence includes provision of electricity and water to the extent of fifty rupees per month and also payment of local rates and taxes. The scale of furnishing shall be such as may be specified from time to time by Government.

5. Conveyance. — A Deputy Minister may be paid by way of repayable advance such sum of money, and subject to such conditions as may be determined by rules made by Government in this behalf for the purchase of a motor car in order that he may be able to discharge conveniently and efficiently the duties of his office.

(2) A Deputy Minister who uses his own motor car whether or not purchased with the aid of advance granted to him by the Government shall be paid a conveyance allowance of one hundred rupees per month.

6. Travelling and daily allowances to Deputy Minister.—A Deputy Minister shall be entitled to such travelling and daily allowances as are provided for a Minister under the Goa, Daman and Diu Salaries and Allowances of Ministers Act, 1964.

7. Medical treatment etc. to Deputy Minister.—A Deputy Minister and the members of his family shall be entitled to receive medical attendance and treatment in accordance with the relevant rules and orders for the time being applicable to First Grade Officers of the Central Government serving in connection with the administration of the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu.

8. Deputy Minister not to draw salary or allowances as member of the Legislative Assembly.—A Deputy Minister shall not be entitled to receive any salary or allowances under the Goa, Daman and Diu Salaries and Allowances of Members of the Legislative Assembly Act, 1964.

9. Notification respecting appointment of Deputy Ministers to be conclusive evidence thereof.—The date on which any person became or ceased to be a Deputy Minister shall be published by notification in the Goa, Daman and Diu Government Gazette and any such notification shall be conclusive evidence of the fact that he became, or, as the case may be, ceased to be a Deputy Minister on that date for all purposes of this Order.
